Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Background

Content which is difficult to understand:

- Written text: books, brochures, administrative information, etc.

- Audio text: radio news, etc.

- Audiovisual text: news, films, etc.

Audiovisual texts may include written content (subtitles and on-screen text).

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Background (challenges)

- Lack of mapping of current training and practices.
- Lack of professional recognition in different countries.
- Few experiences in the audiovisual context.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Background

What about existing access services?

- Audio description.
- Subtitles.

Could they be made easier to read/listen to and understand?

The project in short

EASIT will:

- define the skills of new professional profile(s) in making content easy to understand,
- design a curriculum and
- develop innovative open educational materials, while approaching certification.

To define both the professional skills and the content of the open educational resources, it will be necessary to define a methodological framework for implementation and propose innovative recommendations in AV content.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Aims

1. To build on existing quality outputs from previous EU projects.

2. To promote the exchange of experience and know-how between expert stakeholders from different fields and sectors.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Aims

3. To adopt a transnational approach promoting the EU's broad linguistic diversity and intercultural awareness.

4. To define the skills of the experts in making content easy to read and understand, and explore whether complementary competences may be added to professional profiles defined in previous ERASMUS + funded projects (eg. subtitler, describer).

Aims

5. Propose a curriculum design to train the experts, expanding already existing curricula for other access experts.

6. Create flexible open educational resources (OER) that can be used in different learning environments.
